COLLEGE ADMISSION PROFILE 2016-2017

Erik Ritschard, Principal • Jeanne Schaffner, College Counselor • Sami Beam, Registrar • CEEB Code: 380214

OVERVIEW

Founded in 1979, the mission of Santiam Christian Schools is to offer a college preparatory pre-K through grade 12 education that fosters academic excellence, responsible citizenship and service to others in a Christ-centered environment. Total enrollment for 2016-2017 is 601. With 222 enrolled in grades 9-12, 47 are seniors. Admission is selective. Students are evaluated on the basis of their transcripts, test scores, recommendations, and a personal interview. Students of color make up 17% of our high school enrollment. 14% of our high school student body is international.

Located in the Mid-Willamette Valley, Santiam Christian draws students from many communities with varied economies in a 50-mile radius. Employers include Oregon State University, aerospace and technology companies (including Hewlett-Packard, Selmet, and ATI), international engineering firm CH2M-Hill, Samaritan Health Services, manufacturers and independent farms.

ACCREDITATION

Santiam Christian School is accredited by both the Northwest Accreditation Commission and the Association of Christian Schools International, and meets all graduation requirements for the Oregon Department of Education.
